

Easiest Quiz - Answers

(1). What country are French fries from?

The correct answer is Belgian

Belgian journalist Jo Gérard has claimed that a family manuscript dated 1781 recounts that potatoes were deep-fried prior to 1680 in what was then the Spanish Netherlands and is now present-day Belgium,

(2). What are camel's hair brushes made from?

The correct answer is squirrels - the tails of squirrels.

(3). In what country were Panama hats first made?

The correct answer is Ecuador - Panama distributed the hats.

(4). What colour is a purple finch?

The correct answer is crimson – the Purple Finch is it is actually red, brown and a little yellow

(5). What was King George VI's first name?

The correct answer is Albert.

Until the time of his coronation, his first name was Albert. Within his family he was generally known as "Bertie." In 1937 and upon taking the throne, he chose the name "George VI", partly to comply with Queen Victoria's wish that no king of England have the name "Albert".

(6). The Canary Islands are named for what animal?

The correct answer is dogs - named after the Latin 'Insulas Canarias' ('Island of the Dogs'), a reference to the wild dogs the Romans found there.

(7). In which month do Russians celebrate the October Revolution?

The correct answer is November (when the Revolution took place the Russians were still using the Julian calendar).

(8). What do honey bees collect?

The correct answer is nectar.

(9). What is the colour of the “black box” in a commercial airplane?

The correct answer is orange - They were named after a Dr Black who invented them.

(10). How many toes does a three-toed sloth have?

The correct answer is 3 of course!