A great time was had at Swanfield Chapel, Chichester heading up the Polar Explorers Holiday Club!

I was reminded during the week that this was the twentieth year that I have been leading Holiday Clubs at Swanfield! So many good memories and a thrill to think of how many children have come to understand the gospel (and to have faith) during those times! As well as being great opportunities in themselves, these Holiday Clubs also give a boost to the regular children's work at the chapel, they also help to make contact with children that may come along to our summer camps & houseparties.

This year we averaged about 60 children most days and it was great to see plenty of parents on the Friday morning prize-giving, and at least one new child and parent attending the Sunday all-age service.

FAMILY NEWS:

Penny writes; “Kathy, Arlo and I have just returned from a week in France with friends. We walked, built fires, ate, slept, laughed (at each other mainly!) and played loads of board games and table tennis. In short; we ‘recharged’ and it was wonderful! We praise God for his incredible provision. Gordon needed to stay at home to run a holiday club, but enjoyed having the house to himself I think!!

Kathy is currently choosing her GCSE options and encouraging us and her teachers with her sense of purpose and mature attitude! Where did that suddenly appear from? Arlo is still a Jack-of-all-trades/activities/subjects and is gradually learning to organise his life to fit it all in! (But not his bedroom!!)

My diary seems to be filling up fast these days and although I love having fingers in lots of pies I do need to take them out of the dishes sometimes and get on with the housework!! Please pray for me, once again, that I manage to maintain some sort of balance. Noah’s Ark Baby and Toddler Group has a regular attendance of between 70 and 80 each Thursday and we are working on ways to develop our relationships with individuals and with families, please pray for wisdom, confidence and vision!

Keeping our Lord Jesus central in all our Ministry, our conversations and in our family life is our constant prayer and we ask that you will join us in praying that our message and witness will be clear and honouring to God. THANK YOU!”

Penny's Ladies Craft Night March 2015

THE NET (inter-Church Men's Event):

One of the highlights from this year’s session was a night at Costa's! Great to link up again with old friends and colleagues. The music was provided by Phil Overton and we had a thought provoking message from Ivor Cooper! At the end of the evening plenty of literature was taken, even the Costa staff asking if they could take a book! The Net continues to attract unchurched men, please pray!
