Prayer focus and news from HAMPSHIRE

FACEBOOK

Great to receive this recent posting on FB:

“A blast from the past seeing you on Facebook Gordon. I can still remember as if it was yesterday becoming a Christian at New Forest Christian Camps aged 12...23 years ago! God used u to change my life - thank u”

Ecclesiastes chapter 11 verse 1 (E.S.V) comes to mind:

“Cast your bread upon the waters, for you will find it after many days.”

Great night! Great crowd! Great food! 34 men enjoying the now famous annual “The Net” BBQ in the woods! Complete with wildlife kebabs and a great message from Bob Telford! This event completed this latest series of activity based events for men.

It has been really encouraging to see new people coming along and at each event we have had quite a few ‘UnChurchd’ men attend.

Please ‘pray in’ the challenging and poignant messages that have been spoken.

FAMILY NEWS:

Penny writes, “Thank you for your sustaining prayers and encouraging comments, with those and the Lords help we might just make it to 23rd July!! The Spring has held its own share of illnesses, problems and crisis as well as the normal work load and I have to admit that I, for one, am feeling pretty exhausted!!”

Kathy has started her GCSE courses this term and is finding them mostly interesting and challenging, with just a few boring bits thrown in! Please continue to pray for both her and Arlo’s witness at school as this is increasingly an area of difficulty for them both. Arlo has worked hard this first year of Secondary School and is pretty tired too, his teachers tell us that he always tries his best however and has made a good start. We are very proud of them both.

Look out for some photos of Noah’s Ark in the next ‘Ignite’ and please pray that as the Mums look for their children in the pictures that they will also read the articles!! Look out too for news of the new LIFE exhibition project, which is coming on apace. I am thoroughly enjoying being part of that particular venture although it has meant quite a few extra meetings.

As camp looms on the horizon please pray for Gods guidance as we plan and bring a team together and that in our weakness we will testify to and know His strength”.

HOLIDAY CLUB:

Praise God for a really good week’s Holiday Club at Berrymead Evangelical Church Acton, London during the May half-term. Although numerically it has been a small Holiday Club, I have been told that the ‘regular’ children have demonstrated uncharacteristically good behaviour and listening skills during the week! Praise God too for the parents who opted to also stay in for the two hours of club!

The Holiday Club also attracted a variety of new contacts for the fellowship to follow up.

Please pray in the ‘good seed’ sown in this tough multi-cultural area of London.
